Wine, Food, Spirits and the Arts

SAVOR DALLAS FETES PARTNERSHIP OF AT&T PERFORMING ARTS CENTER
AND THE RESTAURANTS OF ONE ARTS PLAZA

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Dallas, Texas --- Savor Dallas recently feted their partnership with the AT&T Performing Arts Center and the restaurants of One Arts Plaza for the 2010 Savor Dallas Arts District Wine Stroll. Culinary teams from Dali Wine Bar, Fedora Restaurant and Lounge, Jorge's, Screen Door and Tei-An sampled signature recipes for special guests in the One Arts Plaza courtyard, complimented by specialty cocktails from 10 Cane Rum and premium wines from Casa Lapostolle.

"We are thrilled to include the much anticipated Performing Arts Center along with the Dallas Museum of Art, Meyerson Symphony Center, Nasher Sculpture Center and all of the One Arts Plaza restaurants in next year's Arts District Wine Stroll," says Savor Dallas co-founder Jim White. "This event keeps growing and we hope the 2010 event will draw an even larger crowd downtown to discover and rejoice in the evolution of the Arts District."

The 6th annual Savor Dallas "An International Experience of Wine, Food, Spirits and the Arts," will be held March 5-7, 2010. Dedicated to showcasing the finest chefs in Dallas-Fort Worth and the world's best beverages, Savor Dallas celebrates the renaissance of Downtown Dallas, especially the Arts District, Dallas Farmer's Market and the newly renovated Sheraton Dallas---the official host hotel for the Savor Dallas weekend.

Tickets for all events are on sale now with special pricing for advance purchase tickets through December 31, 2009. For a complete schedule, go to www.savordallas.com or call 888-728-6747. A portion of the proceeds benefits the North Texas Food Bank and Booker T. Washington High School for the Performing and Visual Arts. Savor Dallas also funds a scholarship for a deserving chef to attend culinary school, which is administered through the Greater Dallas Restaurant Association.
