

SAVOR DALLAS 2012

8th Annual Event Returns March 30-31

The 8th annual Savor Dallas, A Celebration of Wine, Food, Spirits and the Arts returns March 30th and 31st. The popular Arts District Wine Stroll gets the event underway on Friday March 30th between 5 and 7 p.m. Patrons are invited to “drink-in the arts” at four beautiful locations in America’s largest contiguous urban arts district: the Dallas Museum of Arts, the Nasher Sculpture Center, the Morton H. Meyerson Symphony Center, and the Margot and Bill Winspear Opera House in the AT&T Performing Arts Center.

Friday activities continue with a new wine, food and music event, “Sips and Sounds” at the historic Kessler Theater in Dallas’ Bishop Arts District. A wine, beer, spirits, and food sampling (featuring some hot chefs from Bishop Arts) is followed by a concert from Texas music sensation Carrie Rodriguez.

The dazzling “International Grand Tasting” takes place on Saturday March 31st, from 7 to 10 pm, in the beautiful, new Irving Convention Center at Las Colinas. Featuring cuisine from over 60 of the area’s top chefs and more than 400 premium wines, spirits and imported beers. Connoisseurs will want to attend the limited attendance “Reserve Tasting”, preceding the International Grand Tasting, to sample the finest wines and spirits available.

Other events include a wine and cheese tasting seminar at The Rosewood Mansion on Turtle Creek, featuring Scardello’s Cheeses and wines selected by Mansion beverage director Michael Flynn to benefit the Dallas-Fort Worth Chapter of the American Institute of Wine and Food. Another exciting benefit, “Wine, Women, and Lunch” featuring top women chefs and winemakers, will raise money for the Dallas Chapter of Les Dames D’Escoffier and will take place at the Milestone Culinary Arts Center.

Individual tickets are available for all events. Package prices also available. For tickets visit www.SavorDallasTickets.com. For a complete schedule of events and prices, www.savordallas.com or call 888-728-6747.
