

FIFTH ANNUAL SAVOR DALLAS RETURNS TO STUNNING PLAZA OF THE AMERICAS AND WESTIN CITY CENTER DALLAS

DALLAS (Oct. 1, 2008) – The 5th Annual Savor Dallas International Grand Tasting returns to the Westin City Center Dallas and Plaza of the Americas for an even more exciting celebration of the good life.

On March 7, 2009 the International Grand Tasting will showcase the signature recipes of 60 of North Texas' finest chefs and more than 400 premium wines, spirits and imported beers. Three stunning levels of food, wine and fun—including special tasting destinations—will be presented during the event for guests to enjoy the ultimate gourmet experience.

In the heart of downtown Dallas, The Westin City Center Dallas, awarded "Hotel of the Year for Starwood" in 2005 for all of North America, is located in the center of the city's arts and financial district and is the perfect home-base for the Savor Dallas weekend.

The hotel is just a short walk from such cultural attractions as the Dallas Museum of Art, Nasher Sculpture Center and the Meyerson Symphony Center. The Savor Dallas Arts District Wine Stroll takes place at the DMA in Seventeen Seventeen Restaurant, the Nasher and Meyerson on Friday, and the Reserve Tasting is at the Nasher on Saturday. The Westin City Center Dallas and the Plaza of the Americas are center stage for this year's International Grand Tasting on Saturday.

Special rates for the Westin City Center Dallas, which include tickets to Savor Dallas, are available. Go to www.SavorDallas.com and click on Hotel Information.
