

Savor Dallas invites lovers of food, wine, spirits, beer, and the arts to “Dine on the Line” Wed., Oct. 12th, as they celebrate wining and dining in Uptown along the McKinney Avenue Transportation Authority’s trolley line. Trolley cars will transport revelers up and down the line, 5:30-10:00 pm, to enjoy special menus and drink specials at participating area restaurants.

“We are all about the celebration of fine living and the arts,” says Jim White who along with his wife Vicki Briley-White founded the annual Savor Dallas wine and food festival 8 years ago. “Recognizing the excellence and diversity of the food and beverage offerings along the Trolley line is a perfect fall fit for our spring event.”

“Participating with Savor Dallas and its host of food and wine lovers in this celebration is a welcome happening,” according to John Landrum, Chief Operating Officer of the McKinney Avenue Transit Authority.

On Oct. 12th, Trolley riders can enjoy food and drink specials at the following restaurants along the way: Arcodoro & Pomodoro, Baboush, Crú A Wine Bar, Dragonfly, i Fratelli, Morton’s, Private Social, Sambuca Uptown, Sfuzzi, and Truluck’s Seafood, Steak and Crab House.

Joining Savor Dallas and the McKinney Avenue Trolley, sponsors for the event include: Cru–William Hill Winery, Napa Valley Chardonnay ; i Fratelli-Stella Artois Lager ; and Morton’s-Ultimat Vodka: ”Ultimat SavorTini”.

Along with celebrating “Dine on the Line”, Savor Dallas announces the 8th Annual event will be held March 30-31, 2012, and expands regionally. Participants can enjoy wine, food, spirits and the arts in the Dallas Arts District, and the new Irving Convention Center at Las Colinas, 500 W. Las Colinas Blvd. Featured will be cuisine from over 60 of the area’s top chefs and more than 400 premium wines, spirits and imported beers....plus more events to be announced soon. Special pricing on advance purchase tickets is available now through Dec. 31st. Advance pricing ranges from $25 for the Arts District Wine Stroll, to $100 for the Saturday Reserve Tasting, and $85 for the Saturday International Grand Tasting. Package prices also available. Regular ticket prices resume Jan. 1, 2012.

To make dinner reservations along the Trolley Line on Oct. 12, contact the restaurant of your choice. For more information about the McKinney Avenue Trolley consult www.MATA.org .

To learn more about Savor Dallas or to purchase tickets for the various March 30-31 events, see www.SavorDallas.com or call 888-728-6747 for more information.